Welcome to the Anchor!

Welcome to our new refreshment collection!

We've got some epic international brands, plus local gems from our fabulous regional vineyards, food producers and breweries. In an age of tariffs and trouble, we've let our patriotism out of the bag!

Whilst not ignoring the world's finest wine & beer in all of its various styles and price brackets, we've given centre stage to as much British produce as we can. With the wine, please forgive the slightly higher prices than some of the continental competition, that comes with the smaller batches and single vintage methods used, and the wines really are worth it. Watch out for the

New to the list are 0.0% Heineken, the 0.0 that we get asked for the most with a real lager flavour. We've also added Cruzcampo, the fabulous Filipino beer now brewed in Spain and Hazy Day IPA - a punchy tropical IPA with Orange & Lemon afternotes. We've also still got Asahi, Levelhead, San Miguel & Peroni on draught as part of a range now increased to the very wide choice of 14 keg and 3 cask lines.

Lastly, there have been issues with continuity of supply and price of Guinness which you may have seen in the news. We love Guinness and searched around really hard amongst local and national brewers for something comparable. After a lot of deliberation, we've got our own Stout! The Anchor Gennius has created a beautiful creamy stout with a full flavour and deep ruby colours. It's not Guinness, it's not identical, and we think each should have their place, hence we now stock both. The choice is yours!

A few of our lines will rotate regularly to enable us to bring you interesting craft and niche products, so expect to see beers from brewers as diverse as Greene King, Morland, Camden Town, Estrella, Lervig, Duvel, Sierra Nevada, Beavertown, Tiny Rebel, and many others.

We also now have a large range of bottled beers, stout and ciders, with a focus on alcohol free, some gluten free and of course, some that pack a real punch on all fronts!

In soft drinks, we've added Bubble Tea and Iced Teas & Coffees to our ever-increasing range of interesting alternatives to regular tea & coffee and we now have some Decaff Coca Cola Zero Zero, for anyone struggling to sleep at night.

In short, something for everyone and we very much hope you'll enjoy the selection!
